

Michigan State University
Assistant Professor
Department of Animal Science

Position: Assistant Professor, 12-month, tenure-track position in the Department of Animal Science. For information on the Department of Animal Science, visit <http://www.ans.msu.edu>

Responsibilities: The Department of Animal Science at Michigan State University (MSU) is seeking a dynamic individual who is expected to establish and maintain a strong beef integrated research and extension program. Programmatic emphasis may be in environmental management, nutrition, genetics, reproduction, health, behavior and welfare, product quality, integrated beef systems or complement other strengths in the Department. The individual will be expected to contribute to the MSU Beef Team, which utilizes multidisciplinary approaches for teaching, research, and extension. Success will depend on developing an extramurally funded research and extension program that provides leadership for Michigan's beef industry. The opportunity exists to contribute to leadership and direction of MSU's four beef research and teaching cattle units.

Salary: Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Animal Science or related discipline. Preference will be given to candidates with demonstrated accomplishments in beef research and extension. Additionally, experience in grant writing, ability to collaborate, a record of peer reviewed publications and experience in beef cattle production are preferred.

Application: Applications will be accepted until September 1, 2008; late submissions will be considered if a suitable candidate pool is not identified by the deadline. Interested candidates should submit a letter of application outlining career goals, plans for extramural funding, curriculum vitae, and arrange for three letters of reference to be sent to: Dr. Dennis Banks, Search Committee Chair, c/o Kathy Tatro, Department of Animal Science, Michigan State University 1290 Anthony Hall, East Lansing, MI 48824-1225, 517-355-8417. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit applications by e-mail to tatro@msu.edu

MSU is committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The university actively encourages applications and/or nominations of women, persons of color, veterans and persons with disabilities. Michigan State University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.
